

Activity: Exploring Cybersecurity Careers

Job title	Description	Key skills	certifications	Employers
Cybersecurity Engineer	Design, implement, and support the company's overall information infrastructure	Configure, implement, and troubleshoot cybersecurity tools, including Azure, and Microsoft security products	Bachelor's in Computer Science or 3 years relevant experience. Cyber forensics, data loss prevention	Las Vegas Sands Corp., GM, Cisco
Cybersecurity Analyst	Performs network security, incident response, threat analysis, and incident investigations	Analyze threats within a determined threat matrix, utilizes COTS/GOTS applications, ticketing sys.	BS degree, or 5 yr. Or more experience, Security+ or higher	SAIC, EY, Cloudflare, Texas Attorney General's office, Home Depot
Penetration Tester	Visualize network topologies, prepare tests, conduct hacker simulations, and demonstrate likelihood of data compromise	Conducts ethical penetrations, shows proof of concept exploitation, tests to isolate vulnerabilities, and weak points, and recommends fixes	BS degree, or 5 or more years of penetration testing, experience with pen tools such as NMap, Nessus, Metasploit, Burpsuite	IBM, LPL Financial, Arm, Amazon, Gainsight

Reflection Question: I think cybersecurity analyst would be a good place to start my cybersecurity career, and getting exposure to what threats, and vulnerabilities look like, and gaining knowledge from others in the fields, to further my career.